

My charming wife Sandra,

I load this letter with much love and fondness for you who is my one and only adorable wife. I wish your day be enlightened with the brightest sun forever and may its rays be open enough to be bound and hold you stiff, just to tell again, that I am at all times there for you.

Sandra, my cute companion, how far is you prepared to go for me? How profound are you ready to go for our love? I am keen to go far and beyond just to let you recognize you are the most excellent thing that has happened to me!

Sweetheart, your love is deeper than the deepest ocean, extensive than the skies and brighter than the brightest star that shines all night.

My loving wife Sandra, you raise my soul every time I think of you. You are my sunrise and the shining star!

Love, Peter
